

Make Me An Ambitious Consultant, Dear Lord

author unknown

Make me an ambitious, hard working consultant, dear Lord.

One who has the determination and guts to stick with it when the going gets tough.

One who sees potential in every situation and every person.

One who can become passionate and understanding but tough with love.

One who runs like a thoroughbred, charges like a Rhino, but is loyal like a soldier.

Lord, make me a consultant who has dreams, goals, and a vision of total success.

And Lord when you do, help me to meet challenges and obstacles with ambition, consistency, motivation, enthusiasm and excitement.

Help me to remain consistent in the goals that I set for myself and my family.

And when I am in the valley, help me to keep my gaze on the mountain top, knowing you are looking down on me.

Strengthen me with your faith, dear Lord.

Teach me the art of patience and let me know that with God all things are possible because I believe in you.

Pick me up when I am down and out, give me strength when I feel weak.

Push me when I need to be pushed and slow me down when you think I am going too fast.

And as I nurture my belief in myself, help me to get up one more time after I stumble.

And let me know, God, that you created me to be a winner, therefore I can never lose.

And before long I will be saying, not only am I a child of an awesome God,

But I am also the winner that you created me to be in your Word.
