

A Tribute to Mary Kay

Thanksgiving in Heaven

Heaven had a great Thanksgiving Day
As God welcomed home our own Mary Kay!
Can't you envision the celebration
Of those who awaited with anticipation?
There must have been a joyful noise
As He restored her precious voice.

She did God's will here and showed so many the way
To put Him first in our lives every day.
For so many years she brightened this earth
Touching lives and helping others discover their worth.
Now she adds to the light in heaven above,
Looking down on us all with unwavering love.

She gave us a way to pay tribute it seems
By continuing to spread her incredible dream.
We each must make it our own special mission
To pass on what she gave us - the hope and the vision.
There are many in need of what we have to share -
The hope to dream big and the courage to dare.

She had a premonition that each of us would soar-
Higher than we ever knew was possible before.
We can go far with God's help and her plan.
In our minds we can hear her saying, "YOU CAN!"
The only possibility to repay her in any small way
Is to touch other lives and share her dream every day.

Heaven must be celebrating this Thanksgiving Day
With their newest angel - our own Mary Kay.
She is enjoying her loved ones who had gone on before
And will be there to greet us when we reach heaven's door.
Our loss today is Heaven's gain and I think
Soon she will have all the angels in PINK!
